INTRODUCTORY NOTE:
This finding aid is intended as a guide to the archival holdings related to the 1972 Festival of American Folklife Maryland Program and its participants, held June 30-July 4, 1972. Not all of the individuals listed below were necessarily recorded or photographed. There is also a general finding for the 1972 Festival.

HISTORY: The 1972 Maryland Program continued the Festival’s policy of featuring a yearly state program starting in 1968. The program featured different elements of Maryland folklife including maritime traditions of the Chesapeake Bay region, metalworking traditions, and program content on Maryland horsemanship traditions. Also various musical performers from Maryland were featured. The Maryland Program also featured a music stage that featured performances from outside Maryland.

Series 3: Photographs from the production of the Festival
Note: Most Festival photographs are stored in binders in the archive. Black and white photographs are represented by contact sheets or prints. Slides are stored in binders in the Ralph Rinzler Archives and can be viewed on site. The black and white negatives are stored in the National Museum of American History. Digital images and prints of all categories of photographs may be requested through the archivists. Processing fees may apply.

Color, B&W prints, B&W contact sheets and color slides from the 1972 Festival of American Folklife (including the Maryland Program) can be found in binders 13-15 on the archives shelves.

A loose leaf binder of color slides (un-numbered) including photographs from the fieldwork phase of the Maryland Program can be found in the archive stacks.

Series 4: Audio recordings from the Festival program fieldwork phase
